Contents

Scope and Sequence	vi
Series Overview	viii
Chapter 1 Answering 6 Common Interview Questions	1
“While you’ll never be able to anticipate every question you might be asked in an interview, you can get a head start by developing strong, concise answers to commonly used questions.”
Chapter 2 Young Women Changing the World	11
“These young women prove that no matter how young you are, if you’re passionate about a cause and take action, you’re old enough to make a difference.”
Chapter 3 Student Learning Teams	21
“Research has shown that college students can learn as much, or more, from peers as they do from instructors and textbooks.”
Chapter 4 Learning to Speak	31
“People have a tough time learning new languages as they grow older, but infants have the ability to learn any language, even fake ones, easily.”
Chapter 5 The Man in the Moon Has Company	41
“Have you ever looked at the moon? Really looked? You might be surprised at how much you can see.”
Chapter 6 Culture Shock	51
“Like the thousands of exchange students who enroll in American colleges each year, Tamara Blackmore discovered there is a sea of difference between reading about and experiencing America firsthand.”
Chapter 7 Private Lives	61
“Life seems a little less fragile when you can depend on a special place to always be there for you.”

Chapter 8	A Young Blind Whiz	71
	"Though he is only 18 years old and blind, Suleyman is among the top computer programmers at IntelliData Technologies Corp., a large American software company."
Chapter 9	How to Make a Speech	81
	"Scary as it is, it's important for anyone to be able to speak in front of others, whether 20 around a conference table or a hall filled with a thousand faces."
Chapter 10	Conversational Ball Games	91
	"A Western-style conversation between two people is like a game of tennis. If I introduce a topic, a conversational ball, I expect you to hit it back."
Chapter 11	Letters of Application	101
	"The purpose of an application is to attract an employer's attention and persuade him or her to grant you an interview."
Chapter 12	Out to Lunch	111
	"Birds do it. Cats do it. And Spaniards most especially do it—every day, in broad daylight. They nap."
Chapter 13	Public Attitudes Toward Science	121
	"The public needs to have a basic understanding of science, so that it can make informed decisions and not leave them in the hands of experts."
Chapter 14	The Art of Genius	131
	"How do geniuses come up with ideas? What links the thinking style that produced Mona Lisa with the one that spawned the theory of relativity?"
