This book is the work of great Shī'ah scholar, the late Mullā Mahdī Narāqī (died in 1209 A.H¹), in answer to a book written by one of Sunnī scholars. The latter book had been written in Persian and attempted to nullify the Imāmīyyah or Shī'ah sect and verify Sunnīsm. The book of the late Narāqī uses clarifying reasons to show the weakness of arguments in mentioned Sunnī book.

In each chapter, first one or more Sunnī belief is quoted from the Sunnī book. Then it is followed by reasoning from Mullā Mahdī Narāqī to nullify it.

Note from the Translator

Praise be to Allah, Who empowered me to accomplish the translation of this work, Shahāb Thāqib (Illuminating Star). May Allah's Greetings and Blessings be on Prophet Muhammad (s.a) and his infallible progeny.

This book contains the obscurities posed by an unknown Sunni writer more than two hundred years ago and the counterarguments of a Shī'ah scholar, the late Mullā Mahdī Narāqī.

I humbly dedicate this work to the first and the best Muslim believer; 'Amīr al-Mu'mīnīn, Imam Ali (a.s), the brother and closest companion of Messenger of Allah (s.a).
