To Our Families

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

English Express: Reading General Passages is primarily intended for undergraduate and graduate students who are required to pass General English (GE) courses at colleges and different departments of universities. It is also meant for the English language learners who wish to improve their reading and vocabulary skills for academic or personal purposes.

Although the current book might suffer from some limitations, we hope that English Express: Reading General Passages may serve the academic-level students as a helpful and encouraging guide to improve their GE skills.

No claim is made that this book has covered all areas in the field of the English language nor it need no improvements. Any comments regarding this book may be directly addressed to us at the following addresses:
